UNDERSTANDING AND ALLEVIATING BOREDOM AT HOME AND SCHOOL

Presented by Michele Juratowitch

Michele has qualifications in Gifted Education and Counselling and has worked as a School Counsellor for over twenty years.

Monday 22 November 2010. 6.30pm for 7pm to 9pm

Venue: Redlands School 272 Military Rd Cremorne NSW 2090

How can parents and teachers manage students who say they are bored? You will learn about the dynamics of boredom and how to develop strategies and skills to help you understand and help your child remain academically engaged. Parents and teachers will gain information that assists them to guide students towards involved, autonomous learning throughout their school years.

Michele Juratowitch is Director of Clearing Skies and provides support services for gifted children, adolescents, parents and professionals who work with the gifted. In 2003, she was awarded a Churchill Fellowship to travel to the UK and the USA to study the counselling and intervention needs of gifted children, adolescents and families.

Light Refreshments will be served. NSWAGTC Bookshop will be available (Cash/ Cheque & Credit Card).

Please note: We are unable to accommodate children at our Monday Night Seminars.
